Taking Responsibility Worksheet

Following are the tips on how to take responsibility for your actions and words. Read them carefully and practice them in your daily life.

- Live up to your commitments
- Don’t blame others for what you did
- Don't make excuses for avoiding your responsibilities
- Make a habit of apologizing when you make a mistake
- Learn from your mistakes
- Be honest with yourself and others
- Always stand for what you think is right
- Be courageous and confident
- Make a schedule of your routine timetable and follow it with consistency
- Take care of your loved ones and be mature in your relationships