

WORKSHEETS FOR GRADE 3:Version 2

- Seek Permission:

Teach your child to seek permission so that they know that they can't touch and use everything that is around them without asking the elders.

- Ask for an Apology:

Whenever you feel that you have made the mistake and need to apologize, seek an apology.

- Salutations:

Shaking hands whenever you feel is necessary and needed. Like telling your kids to say hello, hey, or goodbye. How to welcome people to your home.

- Waiting for your turn:

Teach your children about how they can function in a society, how they should wait for their turn.

- Sharing:

Introduce the concept of sharing so that they know that they should share their things and toys with each other.

- Ask for help whenever you need:

Asking for help is one of the most important skills that need to be taught to children since they are unable to communicate about their needs and wants.
